UNUSUAL ELECTION.

The election Tuesday went off quietly, in this part of the country there being a very light vote. It is evident the citizens of the United States are much more interested in winning the war than in winning the election. In districts where the election of congressmen was a matter of doubt, however, reports are that full voting strength resulted.

It is yet early to determine definitely whether the Republicans or Democrats will have control of the next Congress. Reports are indeed favorable for the Democrats, and we believe that President Wilson will have his own party to assist in bringing about peace and reconstructing the country and helping reconstruct Europe after the war. We have felt all the time that the people of this country would not deny the president anything he considers necessary to carry on the war to a successful con-Indications are that the American people have given Mr. Wilson just what he asked for.

UNUSUAL ELECTION.

The election Tuesday went off quietly, in this part of the country there being a very light yote. evident the citizens of the United States are much more interested in winning the war than in winning the election. In districts where the elec-tion of congressmen was a matter of doubt, however, reports are that ful! voting strength resulted.

It is yet early to determine definitely whether the Republicans or Democrats will have control of the next Congress. Reports are indeed favorable for the Democrats, and we believe that President Wilson will have his own party to assist in bringing about peace and reconstructing the country and helping reconstruct Europe after the war. We have felt all the time that the people of this country would not deny the president anything he considers necessary to earry on the war to a successful conclusion and bring about a just peace. Indications are that the American people have given Mr. Wilson just what he asked for.

Arctic coast as "Levi" Bower, one of The notice add the very few men who have gone; from the outside into the far north-ern almost fabled land of the "blond Eskimos" thus described them when he was here revently.

"And I don't think it was Stefansson who first found them," Bower asserted. Vilhjalmur Stefansson, returned Canadian Arctic explorer, who has been credited with discovering the strange tribe, agrees with Bower that he did not find them first. He does, however, claim that he made the first study of the tribe and brought back to the outside world the first report of its existence.

According to Stefansson and Bowr, a captain, Klinkerberg, master of the whaling schooner Olga in 1905 pushed northwest to Victoria Land where he found the blond tribe. On his return to the whaling base at Herschel Island, an Arctic ocean point, he told of his findings. Stefansson, then at Herschel, heard Klin-kenberg's story and immediately went to Victoria where he made a study of the natives.

Bower claimed the "blond Eskimos" are really blond. Stefansson does not go that far but says they have light gray, almost blue eyes and lew have light hair and eyebrows. Bower pointed out that the "blond" natives have round full eyes while the other Eskimos of the far north have the slant eyes of Asiatics.

"It looks as if the blond Eskimos" come from early Greenlanders, or Scandinavian stock of some kind," Bower said. "I know they are not eyes and black hair. These white ones have light eyes and light skin and hair. The old men of the tribe have the same white features as the young.

"Bows and arrows are used by them, they know nothing about tobacco and liquor, they make their fires with a sort of flint, they dress in skins, they spear their reindeer and club their fish, they don't eat out sider's food and they speak a language similar to that of the Eskimo.

They are hospitable, friendly and square, too square, I think. If you give them anything they are not satisfied until they give you something in return. I gave one woman an empty baking powder tin and she immediately brought be a big skin.
"We left a gun with them. Instead of using it to kill meat, the men seemed to think it was a plaything for when I left they were shooting their bullets away at tar-gets and wildly into the air. When they ran out of ammunition they probably turned the gun around and got some real juse out of it as (a) club."

Bower said he thought there were over 250 "blond Eskimos" on Victoria Land. It is not very probable that they will ever be molested much by the outside world for Victoria Land is far off the usual run of traders and whalers go into the Arctic no longer.

Bower has served on whaling vessels in many parts of the north, and until this recent return to the states and not been out of the Arctic for ive years. On Stefasson's last trin he was steward on the schooner Polar Bear which Stefansson used for a time, Stefansson took Bower into the "blond Eskimo" country.

AREN'T YOU REALLY ON THE WRONG TRACK?

A good share of so-called rheuma-tism is caused by weak kidneys. When the kidneys fail to clear the blood of uric acid, the acid irritates the delicate nerves. KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.-Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night . . . I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me 9 until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up 6 again . . . I decided I would try Cardui . . By time I had taken the entire bottle was feeling pretty good and could raighten up and my pains were nearly li gone. I shall plways praise Cardui. I connued taking it until I was strong and /ell." If you suffer from pains due to male complaints, Cardui may be just hat you need. Thousands of women ho once suffered in this way now praise ardui for their present good health. ive it a trial.

Cultivate Self-Confidence. Dress and self-confidence go hand in hand. Self-confidence is the motive power that turns the wheels of success. Self-confidence is the knowledge that you can and will do whatever you happen to undertake. If you are leficient in self-confidence, you cannot expect to inspire it in others.

Daily Thought.

God is love. Therefore love. Without distinction, without calculation, without procrastination, love. Lavish it upon the poor, where it is very easy; especially upon the rich, who often need it most; most of all upon our equals, where it is very difficult, and for whom perhaps we do least of all.-H. Drummond.
